HOUSE WOULD FORCE HIS HAND

Stephens Proposes Repeal of Neutrality Laws to Stir
Up President

LIND IS DISPATCHED
AS MEDIATION ENVOY

Wilson Has Confidence Efforts
Toward Peaceful Settlement
Will Succeed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—An attempt to force President Wilson's hand on the Mexican situation came in the house today when Stephens introduced a resolution proposing to repeal the neutrality laws and permit the Mexican rebels to procure arms and ammunition in America. He denounced Huerta as an usurper.

The president today expressed confidence that the conciliation mission to Mexico of ex-Governor Lind of Minnesota, appointed by the president, will be successful. Lind's first step will be to communicate with wealthy and powerful Mexicans who have advised the administration that they are independently negotiating for a compromise between the warring factions.

PRESIDENT SENDS

LIND AS MEDIATOR
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The first step by the Wilson administration looking to the pacification of Mexico was taken yesterday afternoon when former Governor John Lind of Minnesota was sent to that disturbed country with instructions to act as a mediator between the opposing factions.

Preliminary to the departure of Mr. Lind, Secretary Bryan announced the acceptance of the resignation of Henry Lane Wilson as ambassador to Mexico. In order to prevent Mr. Wilson from talking he has been continued in the diplomatic service until October 14 next.

The official statement concerning Mr. Lind, given out by Secretary Bryan, is as follows:

"Ex-Gov. John Lind of Minnesota has been sent to Mexico as the personal representative of the President to act as adviser of the embassy in the present situation. When the President is ready to communicate with the Mexican authorities as to the restoration of peace, he will make public his views. Gov. and Mrs. Lind departed for Mexico over the Southern Railway at 4:35 o'clock this afternoon via New Orleans or Galveston."

Regarding Ambassador Wilson, Secretary Bryan issued the following:

"Ambassador Wilson's resignation has been accepted to take effect October 14. The part which he felt it his duty to take in the earlier stages of the revolution in Mexico would make it difficult for him to represent the views of the present administration in view of the situation which now exists."

These two statements throw a flood of light upon the policy the President has determined to pursue. This policy is in brief as follows:

(1) Refusal to recognize the Huerta government.

(2) Rejection of the plan of military intervention.

(3) Postponement of the adoption of the suggestion to place the revolutionists and the Huerta government upon the same footing with respect to getting munitions of war from the United States.

(4) An effort to induce Huerta, for the benefit of his country, to agree to retire from the presidency.

(5) Use of the good offices of the United States through Mr. Lind to secure Huerta's retirement and have him agree to a general election.

(6) Acquiescence by Gen. Carranza, Gen. Pesquera and others in the program of an impartial election.

(7) Agreement by all factions to abide by the result of the election.

Mr. Lind's selection as mediator was a surprise in Washington. It had been understood here that John E. Lamb of Indiana would act as the personal representative of the President, having been designated as the successor of Henry Lane Wilson. Mr. Lind, it developed, was picked last Friday and since that day has had a number of personal interviews with the President and the Secretary of State.

LANDED ON FOR ILLY FILLED TRENCHES

Trustees Demand that Contractors Obey the rules of the Office or Quit

FLOWER STREET IS ASKING FOR GRADING

Bond Election for Water and Fire Purposes to be Held in a Few Weeks

An awakening has arrived. Something is going to be done about ending the practice of leaving poorly filled trenches in the street after the street has been trenched for sewers, water and gas. Last night at the city trustees' meeting the ill-finished sewer trenches were jumped on with both feet by the trustees, particularly trenches filled in by E. C. Frambes, sewer contractor. There was not much said about water and gas trenches. Frambes said there are plenty of both that spoil the surface of the streets. Evidently, however, the trustees want no more of it, who ever done by.

Last night's affair concerning trenches not properly filled seems to have been brewing for several days. It started when complaint came in about a number of trenches left in bad shape on Bush street between Washington and Twentieth. Trustee Grubb last night said that there are fifteen trenches on that street that give each automobile fifteen separate bumps and threaten damage to every vehicle that goes over them.

Trustee McPhee brought the matter up last night. He said there are hundreds of places in the city where sewers have been connected and loose dirt thrown into the trenches, leaving a bump in the streets.

"I move that the street superintendent enforce the ordinance," said McPhee, "and compel Frambes, it is his fault, to leave streets in good condition."

Grubb said that Frambes, Smith and other contractors should put up deposits and when a trench is left in bad fix use their money to remedy the defects.

Discussion then developed that there is a deposit of $1 put up for each permit issued, and that $1 is not supposed to be returned to the contractor until the street superintendent is satisfied with the way in which the street is left and signs a release of that dollar.

Sewer Superintendent Reid said that the trouble with Frambes has been that he does not take out permits, that he goes ahead and does the work and Reid has no memoranda by which to know when and where to inspect the sewer connections made by Frambes. Sometimes Reid does not find out that a sewer connection has been made until weeks after the pipe is laid. The trench should be left open after the pipe is laid until the superintendent can see it.

"I don't know why Frambes does not follow the rules," said Reid. "He has not asked for the location of a Y in three or four months."

McPhee: "Frambes, why don't you obey the rules?"

Frambes: "I will from now on."

Reid: "He has not been doing it, and I recommend that you do something."

Alderman: "This board has a right to prevent a contractor doing any more work for the city, and this contractor comes within the ordinance on that point. If Frambes fills another trench without giving the superintendent a chance to inspect it, he should forfeit his right to do business as a sewer contractor."

Frambes said that he had been careless, but that hereafter he would do it right, and he would fix up the old trenches that he had left in an improper condition.

Grubb wanted to know if the street superintendent had signed releases for the trenches on Bush street, but no information on the point was secured.

Bids Are Opened

Bids were opened for city advertising and city printing. For advertising the bids were: Blade—First insertion, per inch, 54 cents; subsequent, 44 cents each. Register—First insertion, 50 cents; subsequent insertions, 45 cents each. For job printing bids were received from John M. Reed, Register, Blade, Worden Printing Co. The Blade was awarded the contract for advertising and the bids on job work were referred to a committee consisting of Alderman, Greenleaf and McPhee.

Flower Street

Property owners on South Flower between First and Fairview asked that fences be moved back to the full width of the street, and the street be graded and graveled. McPhee said the street ought to be fixed up right away, as it was left in bad condition by sewer work. Mrs. May Murphy and Mrs. S. P. Hamilton said the street is not passable for a

WILL CARRY OUT SUGGESTIONS OF BOTH

Grand Opera House to be Made Over According to Recommendations

FOLLOW COMMITTEE AND ARCHITECT, TOO

Steel Posts, Girders, Fire-Escapes Galore, New Curtain, New Stairs

Tomorrow morning workmen under the direction of Contractor George E. Preble will begin the remodeling of the Grand Opera House. Every recommendation that was made by Architect Hudson of Los Angeles and the two engineers employed by him will be carried out. And that is not all. Every recommendation made by the local committee, consisting of City Engineer Finley, Engineer H. C. Kellogg, Architect Frederick H. Eley, former Building Inspector H. H. Roper and Contractor G. E. Preble, is to be put into execution.

Already steel girders have been placed under the opera house. Tomorrow the extensive improvements planned to be made for the remodeling of the opera house will commence, and Manager Uim states that they will be completed in time for the opening of the season at the Grand Opera House on Sept. 1.

A steel girder is to be placed beneath the balcony, and three additional posts will be put under the balcony to add to its support. The old stairway will be torn out and a new one put in. Either a steel or an asbestos curtain will be installed.

A stairway will be built on the east side of the building, with exits from both the balcony and the main floor, to be used in cases of fire. The present stairway on the west side, also outside the building, will be connected up with the balcony. The house will then have exits on both sides as well as at the main entrance. Hand-rails will be put in on the stairs.

The owner of the building, W. F. Lutz, is determined to have the building meet all the requirements of the Los Angeles architect and also of the local committee, though the findings of the Los Angeles architect are understood to have taken the place of the committee.

FLAMES MENACE CLEVELAND FOREST

Wall of Fire Three Miles Long
Threatened Enormous Loss to Timber

HEMET, Aug. 5.—Fanned by a high north wind, a line of flames three miles wide is sweeping toward the Cleveland forest reserve, and unless the wind veers, immeasurable loss to the standing timber of the national forest is threatened. A total area of seventeen square miles has been devastated by the fire, which started Sunday in Crown Valley when lightning struck a tree during an electrical storm.

Volunteer fire fighters sent from Hemet and other towns yesterday found themselves unable to cope with the flames because of the terrific heat. The hottest day of the year brought a temperature in Hemet of 108 degrees, and the heat of the fire augmenting the rays of the sun sent the mercury up to 125 degrees in the vicinity of the fire, preventing anything like active work on the part of the fire fighters.

So far as could be learned, fourteen families have been burned out. Their ranch houses, barns and hay have been reduced to ashes and in most instances, those burned out were destitute as well as homeless. In addition, numerous camping parties have been forced to flee.

It is possible that lives have been lost, but no definite information of this has been received here.

At 11 o'clock last night the fire line was within four miles of the Cleveland forest and the forest patrol was desperately working to prepare the defense of the reserves against the onrushing flames. The fire was sweeping in the direction of St. John's Pass, north of Warner's Hot Springs and about thirteen miles south of Hemet.

The loss to timber thus far has

CAUSE CELEBRE IS BEFORE THE COURT

Maury Diggs Went to Trial Today for Violation of White Slave Act; Change Of Venue Denied

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Climaxing an escapade which stirred the nation from the Atlantic to the Pacific, which involved the Washington administration; which caused bitter diatribes in Congress, and which cost John L. McNab of San Francisco his job as United States district attorney, Maury I. Diggs of Sacramento was placed on trial here today for violation of the Mann white slave act.

Diggs, who with W. Drew Caminetti, deserted their wives in Sacramento and fled to Reno with two pretty high school girls—Marsha Warrington and Lola Morris—went to trial today before United States District Judge William C. Van Fleet, with Matt J. Sullivan and Theodore Roche, special assistants to Attorney General McReynolds, as his prosecutors. It was expected because of the great publicity of the case, some difficulty will be encountered in getting an unbiased jury. When this is obtained, however, it is probable that both girls will be placed on the stand almost immediately to tell their stories of the Reno adventure and what occurred at that time.

Diggs and Caminetti were in court when Judge Van Fleet took the bench at 10 o'clock. Neither girl had yet arrived. Chief Counsel Woodward, for Diggs, moved for a change of venue to Sacramento. Judge Van Fleet refused to make an immediate ruling, but it is believed the motion will be denied. The selection of a jury was then begun.

Judge Van Fleet denied the motion for a change of venue. The defense declared that twenty witnesses would be summoned from Sacramento and ten from Reno. Both sides are maintaining the greatest secrecy as to the identity of their witnesses.

Court action today progressed as far as interrogation of the first prospective juror, C. A. Thayer, a lumberman who was temporarily passed.

Mrs. Caminetti, the defendant's mother, is en route to San Francisco today, and will probably attend both trials. Caminetti Senior is in Washington, but is expected here before his son's trial begins.

After taken subject to exemption had been excused Special Prosecutor Matt Sullivan made his opening statement. A recess was then ordered until 3 o'clock, when the empanelment of the jury began. Arguing for a change of venue to Sacramento, Diggs' attorneys explained the defendant was compelled to borrow money from his friends to finance his defense.

It had been the intention of the then District Attorney McNab to have tried both Diggs and Caminetti for conspiracy to violate the Mann act. This plan, however, was abandoned when Sullivan and Roche were named to act, and Diggs, the first to be tried, faces a charge of actual violation of the law. The maximum penalty is five years in prison on conviction on each of any of the several counts, but it is probable that a five year sentence will be the maximum imposed in any case. Immediately on conclusion of the Diggs trial, which is expected to last about a week, Caminetti will be placed on trial on the same charge with Miss Morris as the principal witness.

At the conclusion of Caminetti's trial, Diggs and his attorney, Charles B. Harris of Sacramento, will face a jury on a charge of attempting to suborn to perjury in connection with the case.

The elopement to Reno of Caminetti and Diggs with Lola Norris, 19, and Martha Warrington, 20, aroused social and political circles of California as they have not been aroused in years. Frank Drew Caminetti is the son of United States Commissioner General of Immigration Anthony Caminetti.

Maury I. Diggs was formerly State Architect. The men, posing as bachelors, met the two young girls at a social function given by the sorority to which the girls belonged. They called and were well received by the parents of the girls, who were flattered by the attentions of these men who were able to entertain them more lavishly than the youths more nearly their own ages. There were theater parties, automobile rides, frequent presents of flowers and like gifts. Because the attentions of the men had always been conventional, the girls, according to their stories, were by degrees persuaded to indulge in automobile rides that each time ended a little later, or in theater parties that lasted a little longer than they had at first.

Then when the men had attached themselves to the lives of the girls, they revealed their real identity. They admitted they were married, but told stories of domestic infidelity and plans for divorce. At first resentful the young women were won over and looked forward to the time when divorce would permit them to marry them. But this plan of waiting one statement from the men told them that their wives had learned of their plans, and had decided on court action which would involve the four in a scandal. Bewildered, the girls, so they said, fell into the trap and after much pleading by the two men, decided to elope to Reno. There the men would obtain divorces and there would be a double wedding.

On the night of March 10, the four met at a Saddle Rock restaurant and took the Overland train for Reno. The girls declare that even on that evening they begged the men to go to their parents, confess all and ask their advice. It did no good and once they were on the train they ceased to object to the elopement. The four occupied one stateroom to Reno, where the four registered at a hotel.

The girls' fathers that evening, becoming alarmed at the absence of their daughters, investigated and learned of the elopement. They swore out warrants. Diggs was charged with contributing to the dependency of his minor child. Caminetti was charged with contributing to the dependency of his second child, a five weeks' old baby. After a search of two days the men and girls were found. They had left the hotel and were installed in a furnished cottage.

Chief of Police Hillhouse of Reno on the morning of March 14 discovered the cottage where the couples were living. Accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Martin Beasley of Sacramento he went to the place. Diggs opened the door. He denied that he was "Mr. Diggs." "My name is Enright," he said. Then he was forced to admit his identity. The officers entered and, they say, found all the occupants in their nightclothes. The girls begged to be taken to their homes. When they went back to Sacramento, they entered the city secretly for fear of an attack on the prisoners. The men were placed in the county jail. The girls were liberated on bond in the custody of their parents.

It was decided by the authorities that the case was one for the federal courts. The men were indicted for violating the Mann white slave law. At the grand jury investigation here, another angle of the case cropped up. The then United States District Attorney John L. McNab, produced on the stand Nellie Borton, a nurse, who swore that Charles B. Harris, a Sacramento attorney retained by Diggs, had, with Diggs, approached her in an effort to have her see the Warrington and Norris girls and induce them falsely to relate a story that Diggs and Caminetti occupied separate quarters from them in the Reno bungalow, and that their relations had been entirely proper. On the story of Miss Borton both Diggs and Harris were indicted for an attempt to suborn perjury. This angle of the case was brought by McNab to the attention of U. S. Attorney-General McReynolds as a reason for the prompt trial of the cases against Diggs and Caminetti. Because McReynolds ordered the cases delayed until autumn, McNab resigned. McReynolds postponed the cases at the request of Secretary of Labor Wilson, who said he made the request on behalf of Caminetti's father.

AGREEMENT MAY BE NEAR IN THE BALKAN AFFAIR

BUCHAREST, Aug. 5.—Representatives of Bulgaria, Greece, Serbia and Montenegro met officially today in an effort to agree on terms before resuming their regular deliberations. Premier Majoresco of Roumania, president of the conference, announced that no further armistice will be asked. It is believed this indicates that an agreement is expected. The allies are reported to have withdrawn their demands for indemnity.

MIDDLE WEST NEEDS 50,000 LABORERS TO MOVE BUMPER CROPS

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 5.—Fifty-six thousand, six hundred laborers will be required to harvest the crops in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Kansas, Nebraska and Montana, according to figures compiled by railroads traversing those states, from reports of agents at points on their lines.

QUIET REIGNS IN THE HOP FIELDS

Believed Soldiers Soon May be Withdrawn from Scene of Riots

NO INDICATIONS NOW OF FURTHER TROUBLE

Reports of I. W. W. Parties Marching to Scene Were Not Verified

WHEATLAND, Cal., Aug. 5.—Adjutant General Forbes, commanding the militia here, declared today that conditions are quiet following Sunday's riot in the hop fields. It is believed there will be no further trouble. The Durst ranch is almost depopulated today, only 200 pickers out of 1800 returning to work.

WHEATLAND, Aug. 5.—With six companies of militia camped in the school grounds and the hop pickers' encampment on the Durst Brothers' ranch reduced to a few hundred persons, there was little indication here last night of the rioting which brought death the evening before to four men, among them District Attorney E. T. Mahowell.

Every train yesterday carried out a full load of hop pickers from the force of over 2000 which yesterday occupied the huddle of tents, sacking shelters and even brush stacks that formed the harvesters' camp. Every hour saw the number dwindle, as the workers were paid off and departed by train, wagon, or afoot. But fifty pickers appeared for work in the afternoon, and the ranch owners and Adjutant General Forbes, personal representative of Governor Johnson on the scene, were not inclined to anticipate further trouble.

Rumors were rife about town of various parties of Industrial Workers of the World, said to be marching to the scene. No foundation for these reports could be discovered.

A feature of the day was the total lack of ill-feeling toward the guardsmen displayed by the hop pickers. The Oroville and Chico companies arrived soon after daylight and marched at once to the center of the pickers' camp. Not a host greeted them and officers of the command said there was no indication of ill-feeling exhibited at any time. Soon afterward General Forbes and his four Sacramento companies rolled in on their special train and the militia men were at once withdrawn to public ground to make camp.

MORE WORK OF GANGSTERS

Man Suspected of Giving the Authorities Information Shot Down in New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Suspected of furnishing the authorities information regarding the New York gangsters, William Lustig, a brother of an attorney connected with District Attorney Whitman's office, was shot down last night in the same manner that Gambler Herman Rosenthal was recently killed here. At midnight lustic, with a girl, arrived at the Humpy Dumpty restaurant. The girl led Lustig to a table, and after talking several minutes departed.

A black automobile stopped at the curb and four men leaped to the street. All opened fire on Lustig, and then leaped into the machine and fled, leaving their revolvers in the street. Three bullets struck Lustig, but he will probably recover.

PROPOSES A PLAN TO COMPETE WITH JAP NAVAL PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Briton of Illinois introduced a resolution in the House today proposing an emergency appropriation to build three dreadnoughts to cope with Japan's naval plans. He advanced as a reason the statement that Japanese Admiral Takerabe recently declared Japan proposed building a fleet strong enough to defeat "that of any other nation."

LANDED ON FOR ILLY FILLED TRENCHES

Mr. Adams declared the city had money to spend for band music and ought to have the money to fix that street.

Grubb said that he thought the street should be fixed up, but thought asking to have it put to grade was an unusual request, as other streets, such as South Main, are not to be graded.

Alderman said he thought that in the long run money would be saved by putting the street to grade. He did not think it wise to put gravel on a street already a foot too high. By said he favored grading, graveling and oiling the street this fall.

McPhee moved that the street department be instructed to smooth the street up at once, and when a proposition time arrives this fall that the street be graded and gravelled and oiled from First to Fairview. Grubb objected because the city engineer had as yet given no data on the amount of dirt to be moved. McPhee changed his motion so as to order temporary repairs, and ask the engineer for data concerning the grade. This motion carried.

On North Main
All the property owners on North Main from the bridge to the city limits sent in a communication offering to co-operate in the paving but asking that the P. E. be compelled to have the remainder of its right-of-way in conjunction with the property owners. The property owners asked that the fire mains be extended to the city limits. Superintendent Reid said there is a fire hydrant 100 feet south of the bridge and the city wagon carries enough hose to reach the city limits, and fair service could be maintained in case of fire.

Grubb urged that the 4-inch main be built before paving. S. J. Jackman said the present 2-inch main does not provide sufficient pressure. Jackman said it would cost $725 to pave that portion of the P. E. franchise strip recently abandoned. It had been intimated that the P. E. expects to take that strip back. Jackman said the P. E. in that case should pay that money back to the property owners.

The discussion ended by instructing officials to lay a 4-inch water main and a sewer main from the bridge to the north city limits. The petition for paving was granted.

Jackman said the property owners have signed a contract with Huberman for the paving.

Petitions Presented
Rev. Huser asked the city to put into shape a small street running off Hannah street to the German Evangelical camp meeting grove. The county will do the work if the city pays for half the oil. The request was granted.

Henderson Jones stated that while blowing up Grand avenue he had his ankle hurt and had blood poisoning, and he asked to be compensated for time lost. The matter was referred to the street department.

The fine of $5 of Alma McReynolds for riding a bicycle on a flower street sidewalk was remitted.

By said that there had been objection to the electric sign in front of Mateer's drug store because the ordinance had not been complied with. Grubb said the city had granted one theater the right to put up sign posts, and now every theater wants them. "We make the public utility companies take down unsightly poles, and we let these that look just as bad go up," said he. "We made a mistake."

As a report the city attorney said the city cannot change the date of fixing valuations from the first Monday in March to the first Monday in May.

Other Matters
McPhee recommended that Birch Park be better lighted for the band concerts. So ordered.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for grain for use at the city stables, and for the purchase of two work teams.

Nightwatchman Murray was granted a two weeks' leave of absence commencing Sept. 1.

A. D. Swartzel reported that he had inspected Max L. Huberman's paving on East First between the Santa Fe and Garfield.

The city attorney was instructed to notify the P. E. to pave its strip across East First at once.

Specifications were offered for paving Broadway with a paving like that put on Bush street, except that Broadway will have a five-inch base instead of four-inch, and one and one-half inch surface instead of one inch. These were accepted with the understanding that should the city engineer desire changes a new set can be adopted. Alderman voted no on the motion to adopt.

North Main, north of the bridge, was ordered closed so that the gas company can be made to put its pipes down at once. The street will not be actually closed until paving begins. The city attorney ruled that the city cannot put on the ballot with the proposed water bonds a question of a tax levy for advertising and music, and that it would be safest not to use two ballots and have both elections on the same day with the same officers. He thought it would be best to have two separate election days.

McPhee, Grubb and Alderman said they want both propositions put to a vote of the people.

Make a Change
The Trustees concluded to make a change in the amount of bonds asked. No change was made in the total, but the amount asked for water was raised from $60,000 to $63,000 and the amount asked for fire was lowered from $15,000 to $12,000. Greenleaf voted no on the change. The election will probably be held within six weeks.

LOCAL MEN ARE THE LOWEST BIDDERS

Fruitt of Orange and Bird of Santa Ana Are $4300 Under the Next Man

P. V. Pruitt of Orange and A. E. Bird of Santa Ana presented the lowest figure this morning when bids were opened for building a new county hospital on the county farm at West Orange. Their bid is $37,718, which is almost $4300 lower than the next lowest bid, $42,000, put in by C. McNeill of Santa Ana. C. M. Jordan of Santa Ana also put in a bid that was lower than any of the outsiders' bids, except one. Each bid was accompanied by a certified check of five per cent of the bid, which may be forfeited should the contract not be entered into. The supervisors received the bids this morning, and took them under advisement until tomorrow that the architect, F. H. Elley, might have time to examine them. The bids were: C. Leonhardt, $42,700; C. McNeill, $42,000; J. V. Pruitt and A. E. Bird, $37,718; J. S. Hiland, $47,499; Kling Co., $44,674; Long Beach Brick Co., $45,877; Long Beach Construction Co., $46,594; California Real Estate Building Co., $49,399; C. M. Jordan, $43,763.

AMERICANS GET JOLT FROM CUBAN PRESIDENT

HAVANA, Aug. 5.—Following a cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon, President Menocal signed a decree which will have an important effect on the Ports Improvement Company of Cuba, which has long been the subject of bitter attack in the press. The company is composed of American capitalists and holds concessions for the dredging of harbors and carrying out of other improvements in various ports, in return for which it is permitted to collect a surtax on the merchandise of incoming vessels.

The decree declares that the company has not fulfilled all the provisions of the law under which it is permitted to do business and therefore that the secretary of the treasury immediately will suspend payment of tonnage dues, and the secretary of public works take charge of the company's works in all Cuban ports and that the secretary of justice will begin proceedings based on the contention that the company has failed to comply with the terms of the concessions granted it, to annul the concession and recover the amounts of money alleged to have been paid in excess of the work alleged actually to have been performed.

The action of the president is the cause of much excitement here.

FERRIS FREED ON SPEEDING CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—Ten minutes after the case had been submitted to the jury, Ralph Sterling Ferris, the wealthy young man about town held in the county jail in default of $5000 on a speeding charge, was acquitted by a jury yesterday in Justice of the Peace Reeve's court.

Ferris, his face wreathed in smiles at his easy victory, was led back to the county jail, where he must remain until he furnishes bail on a manslaughter charge.

Ferris has been arrested frequently for violating the county speed ordinance and when apprehended the last time was sent to the county jail in default of $5000 bail by Justice Young. The young man tried to secure his liberty pending trial on writs of habeas corpus, but failed.

The acquittal was a surprise to even friends of the young man who filled the courtroom. It was expected, in view of the state's case, that the jury would disagree. Ferris expects to give bail today on the manslaughter charge and secure his liberty. The young man was tried some weeks ago for manslaughter, but the jury disagreed and a new trial was ordered.

Studebaker

Six Cylinder Has Arrived

THE STUDEBAKER "SIX" TOURING CAR marks the most advanced stage in the development of six-cylinder design. It brings within reach of a moderate income those advantages of flexibility and smoothness in which a good six-cylinder motor excels.

The driving power of this car is characteristic. The pull of the silent motor is steady, even and flexible. When slowing down in traffic the "Six" responds to the throttle with remarkable ease, while on the roads the continuous flow of power from the six cylinders gives an uninterrupted smoothness to the motion of the car. The "Six" motor is not only powerful, it is also simple, well-nigh frictionless and highly efficient.

The Studebaker "Six" is a luxurious car. It is, of course, electrically started and lighted. The six-passenger body is commodious and convenient, with deep, restful cushions and complete equipment.

The long wheel base, ample tires and easy, resilient springs make the car exceptionally comfortable.

SMALL BOYS MIGHT HAVE CAUSED FIRE

Barn on Stafford Near G Street Worth About $150 Burned Down This Morning

Small boys and matches may have been responsible for a fire that destroyed a barn on Stafford street between F and G streets this morning about 9 o'clock. The loss is about $150, and may be covered by insurance. The owner is Mr. Emerson, who now lives in Oregon.

The barn was rented by M. H. Shields, who lives at the northeast corner of G and Stafford streets, and contained nothing but a little wood and hay and a tool chest that belonged to F. B. Cook, who lives at 403 Stafford street, one corner of his house being but two or three yards from a corner of the barn.

Children playing in the street first noticed the smoke and flames, and an alarm was turned in by a little girl. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. C. C. Langley attached a hose to a faucet and had a small stream of water playing on the barn when the firemen arrived. The barn was almost gone by that time, but the stream from the fire hose quickly put an end to the progress of the fire, leaving only a charred shell standing.

The children who were near the place say that they had not been playing in the barn. Evidently, however, the fire started some time before it was noticed. The house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cook, which is also on the Emerson property, was not damaged though it is close to where the fire was. Cook's tool chest was charred, but the tools were not damaged.

crop. Some trees have forty props under them and yet the limbs are breaking down and when the apples attain mature size it is expected that the trees will suffer considerable damage.

It has been a remarkable year for apples. The cool weather during July has caused the fruit to make a steady growth, at a period when it usually is dormant and it is now much larger than usual at this time of year.

GREAT OAK FROM LITTLE ACORN GREW

Exorbitant Express Charge Four Years Ago Cost the Companies $26,000,000

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 5.—When in 1909 an express company charged Senator Bengt E. Sundberg of Kennedy, Kittson county, Minnesota, $32 for carrying a casting worth $2.50 to him from Minneapolis, the company laid a foundation for an expense to the combined express companies of the country of approximately $26,000,000 per year.

The casting was ordered by telephone from Kentucky to Minneapolis. Sundberg wanted it for his threshing machine and he wanted it in a hurry. When it arrived the express charges made him mad clear through, as he explains it, and he swore that he would have revenge. How well he succeeded can only be realized in the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday for it was Senator Sundberg who engaged James Mahanah, now congressman-at-large from Minnesota, instructing him to bring action before the Interstate Commerce Commission which resulted in yesterday's order.

Reductions in rates, which will cost the companies about 16 per cent of their gross revenue, were ordered by the commission to become effective on or before October 13, 1913.

PRESS AGENT'S HOPES ARE SADLY BLASTED

Alleged Volcano in Eruption Turns Out to be Only Measly Sawdust Pile

Los Angeles Tribune: Great disappointment fell upon the general passenger department of the Salt Lake railroad yesterday when a telegram was received from Elgin, Nev., stating that "the volcano in active eruption" near there proved to be a vast pile of sawdust at a mountain sawmill.

The reports of the volcano had delighted T. C. Peck, general passenger agent, and others, whose imaginations leaped at the thought of special trains of tourists from all parts of the country, dashing over the Salt Lake road to witness "the stupendous eruption of a volcano surpassing Vesuvius in the days when Pompeii was destroyed." Advertisements would appear in every newspaper in America. Descriptive folders would be issued by the million.

But alas! The matter-of-fact telegram stated that sparks had fired the accumulated sawdust, which would burn until entirely consumed, as there was not water enough at hand to put out the flames, which, owing to their elevation, could be seen for miles.

BOY IS RUN DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE

San Diego Boy Weds Orange Girl—Reception in Honor of Santa Ana

ORANGE, Aug. 5.—Harold Bird, son of P. I. Bird, the Orange Book Store proprietor, sustained a broken leg last evening when he was run over by P. W. Wyland's automobile.

The accident took place about 6:30 p. m. on the pavement in front of the postoffice. The boy was riding a bicycle when struck by the auto and was run over.

The fracture was reduced and the boy is now resting well.

The wedding of Miss Bess Arnim and Mr. Richard Varley of San Diego, was celebrated at 8 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Helen V. Arnim, at 221 South Glassell street. The ceremony was attended only by the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. The young couple left shortly after for an extended wedding trip.

The bride is an Orange girl but has made her home in San Diego for some time, and will continue to reside there with the groom, she is receiving numerous well wishes from local friends.

A reception in honor of Mrs. Fanny M. Lacy of Santa Ana, vice president of the Rebekah Assembly of the state of California, was given by the Ruby Rebekah lodge of Orange last evening.

Mrs. Lacy was presented with a silver cream spoon and numerous flowers from the local lodge members with whom she has always been very popular. She expressed her appreciation of the favors with a few remarks.

Initiation exercises opened the evening's program, which was concluded with a splendid banquet. Dainty place cards with the initials "F. M. L." were used. The affair will long be remembered with pleasure by those who took part.

MIGRATION TO CANADA

Speaker Champ Clark is taking up the question of northward emigration, which he notes is costing this country millions in cash, not to speak of the loss of citizenship. In one recent week, he says, 1845 farmers crossed the line to settle in Western Canada.

But the drift is not all one way. Fifty-five thousand Canadians crossed to this country last year. The purchase for Canadian settlement of a $1,365,000 ranch at Midland, Texas, was a recent straw.

With lands on the American side at $100 an acre more or less, while fat soil has been going in Canada for next to nothing, a population under tow was inevitable for a time. But as always happens, the cream has been skimmed today by the more far-sighted and adventurous.

The American farmer who goes north now should carefully examine the price he pays in directions other than money. There is first that of climate. Regina has a mean winter temperature of zero. This means more than mere physical discomfort. It involves all the social isolation of a snow bound country.

In the western provinces the machinery of civilization is in a more rudimentary stage. The facilities for the education of children must be comparatively low. Prosperity in raising wheat is a fine thing. But one would better pay a little more for his wheat, if he is raising a family of children under conditions that will do the most for their success.

There seem to be only two respects in which Canada "puts it over" on Uncle Sam. One is cheap land. That condition will soon pass. The other is that of order and enforcement of law. It is said that of 634 crimes of violence in the four western provinces in a recent period, 463 met with punishment from the courts. Easy going Uncle Sam can show no such record as that. He must be willing to learn from his neighbor in this one respect where he is weak.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES ALL FREE

An important opinion has just been rendered by the Attorney General to the District Attorney of Ventura county, touching the rights of children and school boards in the purchase of textbooks and school supplies.

The Attorney General holds that teacher and school boards have no right to require the purchase of anything whatever for school use by the children of the elementary schools. It is the duty of the State Board of Education to furnish all the textbooks that they consider necessary, at state expense; and it is the duty of the local boards to furnish necessary supplies at local expense. If anything further be desired by the schools, it must be furnished by the local boards from current funds if they are furnished at all.

EXPENSE OF EXHIBIT WOULD BE TOO GREAT, EXCUSE OF ENGLAND

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Quizzed in the House of Commons today regarding the decision of England not to participate in the San Francisco exposition, Foreign Minister Sir Edward Grey declared that expense was the only reason influencing the decision by the board of trade.

He Got Damages

An amusing case was heard at Castlepollard (County Westmeath) the other day. Thomas McCann claimed compensation from Mrs. Mary Brady for injury to his stock by a sow. "Your warships," said McCann, "her sow ate a goat of mine and made a great fool of me. The sow is such a terror that if any of my children were out she would eat 'em, too." The magistrate, "Is she a tiger?" McCann: "Indeed, your worship, she's worse. I tried to get one of the kid's legs before she was gone altogether, but she was so smart swallowing my poor kid that I couldn't even get a bit of her." Mrs. Brady gave evidence defending her sow. McCann: "Didn't she eat a kid's back and her stomach, her paws, and even swallowed her eyebrows? If she got my little children she would have eaten them to their boots. Why she would eat my house!" Mrs. Brady: "She could eat anything." McCann: "I believe that." McCann was awarded half a crown and costs.

Modern Russia

Russia has been described as "the land of ideas, the land of monotony, the land of variety," and it is also "the home of melodrama." It is other things, too: "The land of melancholy, the land of dancing and laughter, the land of tyranny, and the land of liberty undreamed of by the shackled west." The shackles alluded to are those of convention.

The Awakening

"You're looking mighty sour; what's the matter? Honeymoon over?" "I guess so." "How'd that happen?" "Oh, we were drifting along down life's enchanted stream, like the poet teases about, and just as I was thinking I should like to drift on and on with her forever, she up and told me that she had got to have some money.—Houston Post.

Japanese Wall Paper

It is said that mikado wall papers with the dainty Japanese treatment will be popular this season, when the new attractions in wall papers have been launched, which is generally in the early spring. The black background papers are very decorative and are rapidly gaining favor. Following this come the beautiful tapestry effects in wall paper.

When Soils Cease to Produce

The trouble with soils when they cease to produce as they did when new is not that elements of plant food are actually exhausted from the soil, but the necessary forces for the liberation are exhausted. One of these forces is bacteria. It is estimated that in the common soil there are 150,000,000 bacteria to the ounce. These bacteria must have for their food, humus, then they will liberate food for the growth of plants. To be a good farmer one needs to grow legumes and other cover crop plants to turn under for humus, and to encourage these beneficial bacteria to perform their functions in the soil.

The Best Pain Killer

Buckley's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin will immediately remove all pain. Dr. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says: "It rubs out and other injuries of their persons. As a healing remedy its equal does not exist. Well, so good for you. Only 25c at all druggists.—Advertisement.

Throws Child to Wolves

Throwing his child to the wolves, a father committed a desperate act near Volchuni, Russia, some days ago. A peasant named Grusniejoff, accompanied by his wife and four-year-old child, was traveling by sleigh to Volchuni. Towards dusk, when only a few miles from the town, he suddenly came on a pack of wolves. Grusniejoff's wife, in her terror, suggested that he should appease the famished beasts by flinging them the child. This, however, the man at first refused to do, continuing to belabor his horses. At length, seeing that the wolves were gaining on the sleigh, he flung the child into the road. His sacrifice was in vain, for the wolves, discarding the living bundle, flew to the attack with renewed fury, and at length dragged the peasant from the sleigh. When the horses arrived in the town the woman was found lying unconscious in the sleigh. The child, which had not suffered the slightest injury, was found lying peacefully sleeping on the road.

WHAT IS DOING ABROAD

(By Ed. L. Keen, London Correspondent United Press)

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Militancy is "religious fanaticism," according to Mrs. Flora Annie Steele, whose remarkable books on East Indian life have won her the name of the "female Kipling." Mrs. Steele is a militant, but of the milder variety. Thus far she has confined her protests against the government's alleged injustice toward women, to refusing to pay taxes.

"Recent events," she said today, "bring home the question, 'What should be done for justice and for peace?' To begin with, we must set aside those illogical folk who, horrified at violence, incontinently recognize it as affecting a question of pure justice. Also we must set aside those who, like slum mothers, belabor their hungry, howling offspring with carping and scolding, shrieking shrilly, 'You shan't have no dinner till ye're quiet!'"

"Then we must recognize that the 'outcasts' are religious fanatics and that history teaches us that religious fanatics thrive on coercion. The present partial insurrection of womanhood against something it conceives to stand between it and its God is not likely to decrease or be decreased. The only way to meet it is by earnestly inquiring first whether the sense of injustice which creates it is well founded.

"The majority of thinking men in England today acknowledge that women have suffered and do suffer under our man-made life and laws. Every woman man admits that a widow with children, or she who, standing in the man's place, performs his duties, should share his rights. Few deny that women who pay taxes have a claim on the state.

"Ought not these admissions be sufficient for honest Englishmen? I know it needs pluck to acknowledge past mistakes when one is smarting under a sense of personal outrage, but the strong Briton, as a rule, does not lack pluck. He does, however, require a leader. There should be some man in England strong enough to rise and gather together this sense of sin and see to it that justice is done."

AMERICA LEADS IN MEAT CONSUMPTION

Even Goes Ahead of John Bull in His Much Boasted Roast Beef

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Americans are the biggest meat eaters in the world. They beat Johnny Bull, with all his legends about the beef of old England. Moreover, they eat more beef per capita than the British do.

Figures for meat-eating in 1909, just made public by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture, show that the per capita consumption of meat for that year in the United States, was 162.20 pounds, divided as follows (fractions omitted): Beef, 80 pounds; veal, 7; pork, 67; mutton and lamb, 6; goat meat, 13.

Over in England, where they boast about Good Old Roast Beef, the per capita for that product is only 56 pounds. Moreover the proportion of beef in the total eaten by the American is exactly the same as for the British—47 per cent. Inhabitants of the "light little isle" make up their total by eating 26 pounds of mutton a year, as against the Americans 6 pounds.

The Spanish are the smallest meat eaters, their per capita consumption being only 49 pounds. Germany's is 113 pounds. In both Germany and France pork is the favorite meat.

"In view of the growing scarcity and high prices of cattle and swine and their products in our markets in recent times, it is well to call attention to the comparatively insignificant part played by the ovine species in our meat dietary," the bureau declares. "It may be seen that we consume only 6 pounds of mutton and lamb per head a year, which is barely 4 per cent of the total meat supply. When we compare this small consumption of mutton with that of England, a very striking contrast is presented.

"Our small consumption no doubt is mainly attributable to the exceedingly cheap and abundant supplies of beef and pork which have prevailed in former years, thus rendering it unnecessary to look elsewhere for meat. But the day of cheap meat is past and the present market prices of food animals point to the fact that it is becoming more and more imperative that every available source of our meat supply should be carefully developed. Hence the necessity for more sheep farming.

"It is undeniable that the sheep species, both in the lamb stage and when older furnishes meat of most excellent quality when the animals are suited for this purpose. Therefore the present seems to be an opportune time for stockmen to pay more attention to the raising of sheep for meat production.

"Finally, it would be in the interest of economy for the people generally to cultivate a greater taste for mutton and lamb, especially the smaller families who require joints of a size that cannot usually be supplied from the larger animals. A more insistent demand on the part of the public for mutton and lamb of good quality would no doubt soon lead to an increase of breeding and feeding operations, besides relieving somewhat the present heavy demand for beef and pork in the face of a short supply."

PROTEST MADE ON 5C BANANA TARIFF

A resolution protesting against the five-cent per bunch duty which congress proposes to put on bananas yesterday passed by members of the Los Angeles produce exchange, and at that time they instructed their secretary to forward the resolution to the California congressmen and senators.

The resolution pointed out the fact that the Democratic party had, before election, pledged itself to a downward revision of the tariff and had proposed, in this way, to reduce the high cost of living. The fact that bananas cannot be grown in this country cannot be pointed out, and it was claimed in the resolution that the proposed tax did not, for this reason, even have a protective feature.

Although the proposed tax is only five cents a bunch, J. C. Simpson of the Kline-Simpson Fruit Company, who drew up the resolution and submitted it to the members of the exchange, said that this sum, when figured on the millions of bunches imported into the country annually would mount up into a huge sum. This means that the middleman, and eventually the ultimate consumers, will have to pay the added cost.

Inasmuch as bananas now form a staple and cheap article of diet for so many people, it is claimed in the resolution that it will work a hardship on them if the price is raised and the point is emphasized that the proposed tax is a direct violation of the promise made by the Democratic party before election.

It was a throbbing pain and was often so severe that it seemed as if a knife had been thrust into me. I thought the trouble was caused by heavy lifting, but I couldn't get relief. On the advice of one who had used Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. I soon found relief, and I continued taking them until the pain had gone. The action of my kidneys was regulated, too. I have only had need of Doan's Kidney Pills once since. Hard work brought on an attack of backache, but a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills fixed me up all right. I have just as much faith in Doan's Kidney Pills now as I did when I publicly endorsed them some years ago."

Progressive Headquarters at New York Swamped With Cheering Messages

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—National headquarters of the Progressive party today was swamped with messages from all over the country which predicted "long life and prosperity" for the baby party which was born just one year ago today in Chicago when the organizers met in their first convention at Chicago, which resulted in the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt and Gov. Hiram Johnson of California for president and vice president.

St. Louis to Celebrate

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 5.—St. Louis Bill Moersers will tonight celebrate the first anniversary of the birth of the new Progressive party with a banquet at Suburban Garden. William E. Cadmus, national organizer of the party, is expected to be the principal speaker. Several who took a prominent part in the formation of the new party at its first convention in Chicago last summer, are expected to attend and make addresses. Hundreds of messages from all over the country poured into local headquarters today offering congratulations and prophesying victory for the party four years hence.

From People You Know—From Santa Ana Citizens

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced by evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Santa Ana, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

ACTOR IS SUING THE THEATER FOR $299 WANTS REAL MONEY

Santa Ana Man Fined $10 After Pleading Guilty of Cutting a Corner

Public Administrator Given Letters of Administration on Contested Estate

Today a demurrer was filed in the action brought by L. B. Warren against the Auditorium Theater Company, T. H. Fowler and J. A. Benjamin. Warren is not suing for stage money. He wants real money, and the amount he wants is $299. Warren contracted to furnish the theater with fifteen actors and actresses "to be the best talent available," for $325 a week, the contract to last for six months. At the end of about three weeks the local manager of the Auditorium fired Warren and his actors and actresses, and Warren declared that he was loser $405 by reason of the loss of the contract, but he waived all but $299, so that the suit might be brought in the justice's court instead of going into the superior court. Steele Finley is Warren's attorney, and D. A. Casey filed the demurrer filed today.

The petition of Joseph Cummins for letters was denied, though he was named in the will as executor, because he failed to file the will for probate within thirty days after Mrs. Read died.

FRUIT GROWERS MAY END HEATING TROUBLE

POMONA, Aug. 5.—An important conference between individual fruit growers and members of the city council, held yesterday, resulted in a possible compromise over the orchard heating controversy in this city. Three points were raised by the growers in the report; first, whether the oil shall be tested after any portion of it has burned or before; second, whether the employee or the owner can be arrested, and, third, whether in an emergency, more oil can be purchased. A member of the council stated an amendment would be passed covering these three points if this would suit the growers.
